

The Rose Presentation Ceremony
Ceremony Enhancement

Description: The Wedding Officiant or the Maid of Honor and Best Man can offer the rose to the Bride and the Groom at the appropriate moment.

Officiant: "This wedding celebration is a joining of two unique families who stood separate until today. Today we unite these families by the marriage of Groom and Bride. Groom and Bride would each like to honor the separateness of their families and now, the togetherness, with the giving of a rose to their honored person."

Officiant: "They would also like to acknowledge the love and sacrifice that each honored person has made to help make the Groom and Bride who they are today - a man and woman who are ready to be in a committed, loving marriage of their own."

Description: Groom and Bride, together, present a rose to each honored person

Time: Approximately 1 to 2 minutes in length

Supplies:

Rose for each honored person

Placement: This Ceremony Enhancement can be included anywhere within the ceremony
